

Lieutenant Joe Traylor

Lt. Traylor joined the Saline County Sheriff's Office in August, 2011 as a reserve deputy and was hired as a regular deputy in July, 2013. Since that time, he has served as a patrol deputy, a detective and a patrol shift supervisor. Lt. Traylor was promoted to his current position as commander of the Training and Support Division, which includes the Internal Affairs Division, in September, 2018.

Lt. Traylor is a skilled instructor and serves as an adjunct instructor at both the Arkansas Law Enforcement Training Academy and the University of Arkansas Criminal Justice Institute. He is responsible for the direction of the training program for the entire office.

In addition to his training responsibilities, Lt. Traylor serves as the public information officer and the school resource officer supervisor. He also commands the evidence section, which is responsible for the processing, transportation, storage and destruction of all evidence and other property that is collected in relation to criminal cases handled by the Sheriff's Office.
